

In the Grip of Football Mania: EBV Sponsors Local Youth Football Club

As international football stars like Cristiano Ronaldo and Michael Ballack return from Euro 2008, which was hosted by Austria and Switzerland this past June, future stars of the pitch can be found at 'SV Vagen' football club. Located near Munich, Germany, the club was established 23 years ago.

Thanks to EBV, the girl's team is now fully kitted out. "We are very grateful for EBV's generous support, which has helped us continue our youth work," says Hannes Heider, the women's team manager. "The girls were absolutely thrilled when they received their jerseys – and wearing the new kit for the first time achieved a fantastic 5 to 1 win. It seems that EBV's success has been passed on to our club!"
